SEVEN RESIDENTS AND BUSINESS OWNERS ELECTED TO BLOOMINGTON REDEVELOPMENT PROJECT AREA COMMITTEE

Election results will be official on May 3

(San Bernardino, CA) Seven residents and business owners from the community of Bloomington earned enough votes from their peers Thursday night to be elected to the Bloomington Redevelopment Project Area Committee.

The committee will identify and recommend public improvement priorities for their community through several public meetings this year with their neighbors and area business owners.

On May 3, the Board of Supervisors is scheduled to certify the results of the election held at Bloomington High School. There is a 15-day period during which a challenge of the election results may be filed.

The residents and business owners tentatively elected Thursday were: Dan R. Page, Pamela Geil, JoAnn Fannin, James Pester, Todd Renegar, Alexia King Rishel, and Gerard Torres.

If not successfully challenged, they will join a representative of the Bloomington Little League and Bloomington Community Boosters, the community organizations appointed to the Project Area Committee by Fifth District County Supervisor Josie Gonzales.

The first meeting of the committee will be held in May.

On Wednesday night eight residents and business were elected to the Cajon Redevelopment Project Area Committee.

“Now that the elections have been completed we can move forward with the community’s business,” said Gonzales.

“I congratulate the seven residents and business owners for their dedication to the community. They will play a critical role in the future of their neighborhoods,” said Gonzales. “I also commend the 16 other candidates, who showed commitment to the their community. I ask them to continue to participate by attending the committee meetings.”

190 ballots were cast in Thursday’s election.
